

Figure S1. An example of graphical representation to model each blood pressure component hypotension below threshold measured as area under threshold and total minutes under threshold.

