

Figure 4, Supplemental Digital Content 2 - Percentage difference between the systemic and placebo conditions. Each dot represents the percentage difference between the systemic and placebo condition for each participant. The black full line represents no difference. The green dashed line represents a difference of 33%.