

Figure 6, Supplemental Digital Content 4 - Percentage difference between the perineural and systemic conditions. Each dot represents the percentage difference between the perineural and systemic condition for each participant. The black full line represents no difference. The red dashed line represents a non-inferiority margin of 25%.