

Question Text	Author Response	Custom Submission Question ID
Please complete the following questions in accordance with the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors' recommendations on data sharing in clinical trials (guidelines and examples are available here . Will individual participant data be available (including data dictionaries)?	Yes, after de-identification	54
What data in particular will be shared? (Examples include all individual participant data after deidentification, only participant data that underlies the results, or not available.)	Individual de-identified participant data that underlie the results reported in this article.	55
What other documents will be available?	Study protocol, informed consent forms	56
When will data be available (start and end dates)?	Beginning 3 months and ending 5 years following article publication.	57
With whom? (Examples include anyone who wishes to access the data, researchers who provide a proposal, or not applicable.)	Researchers/investigators who provide a methodologically sound proposal and whose intended use of the data has been approved by an independent review committee.	58
For what types of analyses?	For individual participant data meta-analyses.	59
By what mechanism will data be made available?	Proposals/requests should be made directly to the corresponding author of the article. Data will be made available electronically, on a case-by-case basis.	60