Appendix 1 - Survey Questions

1. In my institution, the majority of teaching of medical students during their orthopaedic rotation is performed by:
   a. Fellow Medical Students
   b. Junior Residents
   c. Senior Residents
   d. Faculty

2. Among medical students, orthopaedic career selection is most heavily influenced by
   a. Other Medical Students
   b. Residents
   c. Faculty

3. It is required that orthopaedic residents receive instruction in teaching and be evaluated in their teaching effectiveness
   a. True
   b. False

4. My institution provides formal instruction to me in regard to teaching.
   a. True
   b. False

5. I am knowledgeable of principles of adult learning and their application to teaching medical students and other residents
   a. Yes
   b. No
   c. Uncertain

6. I would grade my own teaching effectiveness as
   a. Outstanding
   b. Good but room for improvement
   c. Fair
   d. Don’t know what I don’t know

7. My level of interest in teaching is:
   a. High and I want to excel
   b. Somewhat high, but it’s often a distraction and not what I signed up for
   c. Low, and I would much rather have other residents do this