

Supplemental Digital Content 1: Invited Reviewer Survey Responses

	Yes		No		Unsure
	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Strongly Agree		Agree		Somewhat Agree		Neutral		Somewhat Disagree		Disagree		Strongly Disagree		NA
	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members	Experts	Members
Are you responsible for the care of patients for whom this draft adapted guideline is relevant? This may include the referral, diagnosis, treatment, or follow-up of patients.	2	7	2	1	0	1
The rationale for developing an adapted guideline is clear.	2	4		3	1	1					1	1
There is a need for a guideline on this topic.	3	7	1	2
The literature search is relevant and complete (e.g., no key trials were missed nor any included that should not have been) in this draft adapted guideline.	2	4		3	1				2								1
I agree with the methodology used to summarize the evidence included in this draft adapted guideline	1	4	2	3	1
The results of the trials described in this draft adapted guideline are interpreted according to my understanding of the data	2	n/a	2
The draft recommendations in this report are clear.	1	5	3	2
I agree with the draft recommendations as stated.	1	5	2	2	1
The draft recommendations are suitable for the patients for whom they are intended.	1	5	3	1
The draft recommendations are too rigid to apply to individual patients.		1		1					1	2	1	1	2	1
When applied, the draft recommendations will produce more benefits for patients than harms	1	3	2	2	1															1
The draft adapted guideline report presents options that will be acceptable to patients	1	4	2	1		1	1
To apply the draft recommendations will require reorganization of services/care in my practice setting.						2	3			4						1
To apply the draft recommendations will be technically challenging.							1	1		3	2	1	1	1
The draft recommendations are too expensive to apply.							1	2		3	2		1	1
The draft recommendations are likely to be supported by a majority of my colleagues.	1	2	2	2		2	1
If I follow the draft recommendations, the expected effects on patient outcomes will be obvious.			1		1		1			1
The draft recommendations reflect a more effective approach for improving patient outcomes than is current usual practice. (If they are the same as current practice, please tick Not Applicable).			1	3	1	1								1						2	1
When applied, the draft recommendations will result in better use of resources than current usual practice (if they are the same as current practice please tick not applicable).		n/a	1				1													2
I would feel comfortable if my patients received the care recommended in the draft adapted guideline.	1	4	2	2			1
This draft report should be approved as a practice guideline.	1	5	1	1	1					1
If this draft report were to be approved as a practice guideline, how likely would you be to make use of it in your own practice?	1	5	1																	2	1
If this draft report were to be approved as a practice guideline, how likely would you be to apply the recommendations to your patients?	1	4	1	1																2	1

Experts = external experts, Members = members of APTA Geriatrics Bone Health Special Interest Group