

SDC 1. Participant seated in front of the computer performing the LoL task. Participants played a customized LoL video game task seated on a chair in front of a computer monitor. They placed their right hand on a mouse that controlled the movements of the video game's character and launched the attacks.