Results of Bland-Altman analysis. Agreement for ELD (A and B) and ILD (C and D) compared for measurements obtained by means of automatic method and manual processing by human operators. The bias (median) is marked as a solid red line. The 95% confidence intervals of the bias are shown as dashed red lines. The limits of agreement are shown as solid black lines. The values of particular parameters are listed within each plot.