

Handling With Care: Taking Care of Amputated Finger Tips

Hand injuries can lead to fingertip amputations in many people

Not all patients require surgery to help heal their amputated fingertip...

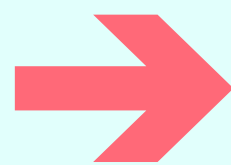

...but they do need to take care of it for better and faster healing

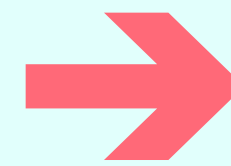

How to take care of the wound

Gently rinse wound in the shower

Apply Vaseline® on clean Coban® bandage

Wrap Coban® around wound

Tips for faster healing

Keep injured finger upright

Rest until it stops hurting

No pain killers (pain-guided healing)

Simple and inexpensive

Easy to follow

Heals without surgery

This set of methods serve as a manual for patients who have undergone fingertip amputations to take care of their wounds for a faster healing