Inclusive terminology and pronouns are essential to facilitate an affirmative environment for transgender and non-binary patients undergoing breast reconstruction surgery. This study evaluates the gender inclusivity of patient education materials for breast reconstruction surgery.

The lack of gender-inclusive language in patient education materials for breast reconstruction surgery must be addressed to meet the needs of a diverse population.