Figure 1: Illustration of the signal strength in the env datasets for an exponential or logistic demographic history. The dashed line marks the boundary at which the logBF between the best model and the model of constant population size is >5. Each column represents a separate transmission chain. Red: logBF <5. Green: logBF >5.