

The impact of COVID-19 on the state of clinical and laboratory research globally in transplantation in May 2020

This report rounds up experiences from around the world on how transplant related research is impacted by the COVID 19 pandemic

We have inventoried the laboratory and clinical research

See
- <https://tts.org>
- <https://journals.lww.com/transplantjournal>

COMMON THEMES

- Dramatic decrease in clinical transplant research activity
- Research projects are put on hold and grants have been frozen
- Laboratories have been closed down with staff working from home
- Animal experiments were restricted or animals were euthanized
- Concerns about future grant funding applications
- As of May most of the clinical and laboratory studies restarted

Bromberg et al. Transplantation. 2020

@TransplantJrnl